

Rhode Island Arts Education Data Dashboard

Key Highlights

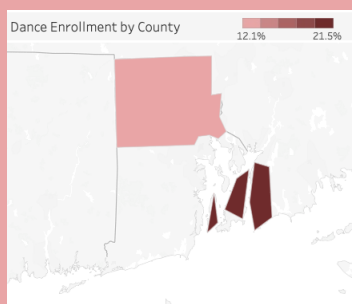

2019-20 School Year

- Most students (98%) had access to at least one arts discipline. However, only 83.6% of students have access to the required amount of arts education.
- Despite the State’s arts proficiency diploma requirement, the enrollment rate was lowest in high schools (63%).
- While access may be high, student enrollments are less than 70% in all 5 artistic disciplines:
 - 63% of students are enrolled in Music courses
 - 69% of students are enrolled in Visual Arts courses
 - 3% of students are enrolled in Theatre courses
 - >1% of students are enrolled in Dance courses
 - 12% of students are enrolled in Media Arts courses
- Only 27 districts offered Advanced Placement course work in the arts and those AP courses were only in Visual Arts and Music. This is only 41% of the 66 public Local Education Agencies (LEAs) or districts in Rhode Island.
- Only 64% of schools offer courses in at least 2 arts disciplines. Ten percent of schools offer courses in 4+ disciplines and 3% of schools have no arts courses offered.

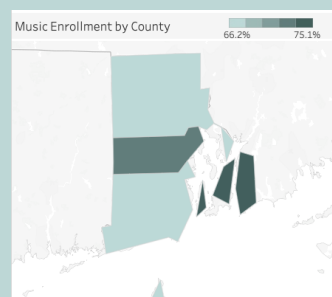

Suggested Viewing by Artistic Discipline
